4 Marion County Soldiers Killed in Action

NE LISTED AS Red Tanks and Cavalry
MISSING, ONE Ten Miles from Minsk
ONE AR PRISONERAdvance Columns Sweeping Around City To Cut Escape Railways to Wilno and Brest-Litovsk.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, JULY 3—Soviet tanks and cavalry struck within 10 miles of Minsk today, and another column driving deep beyond that city hammered within 65 miles of Wilno, which is only 100 miles from East Prussia.

Pounding at the front gates of Minsk, Red army men captured Sloboda, 12½ miles to the northeast, and then pushed within 10 miles of the White Russian capital.

But by bypassing columns already were sweeping around the city on the northwest and southwest, cutting the Germans' escape railways to Wilno and to Brest-Litovsk.

The rush on the northwest posed a threat to Wilno, former Polish city just 15 miles from the old Lithuanian border. This drive captured Wilejka, 65 miles due east of Wilno, and 40 miles northwest of Minsk.

This is the heaviest toll of Marion county service men reported at any one time since beginning of the war.

Staff Sergeant James B. McDonald, previously listed as missing in action over Austria, is now listed dead.

Pfc. William O. Armstrong was killed in action in Italy July 31, according to word received by his wife.

Sgt. Anthony J. Chontos, a paratrooper stationed in Italy, has been reported killed in action.

Pvt. Charles E. Sweeney, formerly listed as missing, was reported killed in action in Italy July 28.

Staff Sergeant Earl R. Castor has been listed as missing in action in the Pacific area.

Staff Sergeant Willard D. Massberger is a prisoner of war in Germany. He had been previously listed as missing in action.

Sgt. McDonald Killed

Staff Sgt. James B. McDonald, 20, previously listed as missing in action, was reported killed Saturday noon by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Thacker McDonald, of the First Church street.

The telegram from the war department and signed by Adm. Gen. McNaughton stated "reports received from German government through International Red Cross states your husband, previously reported missing in action was killed in action April 23 over Austria."

Sgt. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. McDonald, superintendent and matron of Marion County juvenile detention home, was a waist gunner on a Liberator bomber. Details of the action were promised in a letter after the first report was printed May 18 in The Star and again in the telegram received Saturday.

He was induced a few days after his marriage and has been in action overseas since last December. His wife, manager of the Marion theater, lives with her mother, Mrs. Nancy McGowen, of 40 East Church street.

Before entering service, he was employed as teletype operator at Erie railroad offices here. He received training in Colorado, Texas and Kansas.

Pfc. Armstrong Killed

Pfc. William O. Armstrong, 37, was killed in action in Italy May 31, according to a telegram from the war department received by his wife, Mrs. Fern Armstrong of 140 Silver street. No details concerning Pfc. Armstrong's death were included. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Armstrong of Wallace street.

Stationed with an infantry unit overseas since January of this year, Pfc. Armstrong was sent to Africa and later transferred to the Italian front. The last word from him was a letter received five weeks ago. The only time that he had been home since entering service July 29, 1943, was delay enroute to Christmas last year. He received training at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Before entering the Army Pfc. Armstrong was employed as a foreman at the Pollak Steel Co., having worked for the company at Cincinnati before it was moved here. He served 15 years as a member of the Ohio National Guard, most of the time with the grade of sergeant. Pfc. Armstrong was a member of Company B and Company D from 1924 until he entered the Army.

Surviving besides the wife and parents are a brother, Earl Armstrong of near Marion, and a sister, Mrs. Harvey Dunn of Cheney avenue.

BLow STRUCK
BY M'ARTHURU. S. Strikes at Noemfoor
Island, Indicating Move Toward Philippines.

By The Associated Press

General MacArthur's sector of the Pacific war stirred to new life and significance today with a three-prong blow against Noemfoor Island, possibly indicative of a new allied jump toward the Philippines.

The still undecided battles for Saipan and Hengyang mounted in bitterness the 15-by-12-mile island lying in New Guinea's Geelvink bay caught two week-end bombings and a P-T boat-shelling.

MacArthur's headquarters reported the second raid brought 150 aircraft with a 230-ton bomb load over Noemfoor's three airfields Saturday. The unusual weight of the attack suggested MacArthur could be preparing to leap 50 miles from Biak Island to Noemfoor. Or he could be clearing the way for a jump farther west to New Guinea's northwest tip. Noemfoor is 800 miles from the Philippines, 600 from Palau.

Marines, Infantry in Attack

Elements of two Marine and one infantry division narrowed to approximately 25 square miles the pocket into which Japanese on Saipan are being pushed. The Americans advanced from 300 yards to a mile along the front.

Although the crush of the Red army has bypassed Minsk and cut it off from all direct aid or escape by air and one small dirt road leading westward to Grodno; unusually heavy fighting was reported in the broad half-moon of steel the Russians have thrown about the city.

Pravda said all German coun-

HEAVY CANNON
THUNDER START
OF NEW ATTACKBradley's Men "About Face" from Cherbourg To Attack on 10-Mile Front.By The Associated Press WITH AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE, 10:30 A. M., July 3—American forces attacked at dawn today in a driving rain against German lines on the Cherbourg peninsula coast northwest of La Haye Du Pulte, jumping off after a nightlong artillery bombardment.For hours before the doughboys sprang to the attack, the murky skies were lit with flashes of heavy artillery fire and the ground for miles around shook from the intensity of the barrage.The sudden attack after the spectacular victory at Cherbourg and the cleanup of the peninsula area below it gave the enemy little time to get set.The assault was made only a few miles from the area where the Yankee forces chopped the peninsula in half two weeks ago Sunday, isolating thousands of Nazis who finally were mopped up two days ago.With the allies already exerting pressure on the left flank and in the center of the Normandy battlefront, this new blow on the right flank gave the Germans the problem of holding against forces building up along the entire length of the front.Heavy rains turned every dirt road in Normandy into a quagmire, and the attacking Americans had to belly across soggy pastures and through dripping hedgerows under conditions remembered by every veteran of the last World War.

Area of Attack

The attacking Americans pushed roughly from the area below Barneville on the western coast of the peninsula east to St. Sauveur Le Vicomte. The drive was made through rolling farm country studded with small hills and some woods. Hedgerows gave good screen for German snipers, but the American infantry was supported by heavy artillery, including some of the most powerful guns yet used in the French campaign.Danish patriots continued their general strike in Copenhagen despite an appeal by the German troops to the Danish radio for a return to work, the Free Danish press service said today. Stockholm dispatches said, the Danish patrols continued their

Students Arrested

Reports through underground channels said the Germans had closed in just night on a Danish student house near the University of Copenhagen and arrested several more students.The Danish liberty council was said to be spreading word to the patriots to continue the strike until the Danish Nazi "Schalburg corps" is removed from the country.German orders lifting a state of siege in Copenhagen and restoring utilities was said to have had no effect on the situation.A new and disturbing situation, meanwhile, was rising to plague the Germans at home where rejoin in nationwide observance of Thursday, July 6, as War Bond movie day.Anyone who buys an E bond in the Fifth War Loan at any of the theaters on that day will be admitted free. Sixteen thousand theaters throughout the nation are cooperating in this promotion to assist the Fifth War Loan.Even as this assault thrust forward on the allied right flank, other Americans maintained pressure against the big road town of St. Lo toward the center of the Normandy front, and the British held firm southwest of Caen on the eastern flank. There were indications that Field Marshal Rommel was regrouping his forces there—numbering 11 divisions—after being beaten back in 25 thrusts against the British wedge across the Odon river.The new offensive came after Lt.-Gen. Omar N. Bradley, commanding the American First Army in Normandy, hailed the Cherbourg victory as an indication to the enemy as to what he can expect from now on to the end."

Nazis Wiped Out

German assaults thrusting into American lines near St. Lo D'Ourville were wiped out, and the Americans advanced short distances toward La Haye Du Pulte, rail and highway junction, seizing high ground which was described by supreme headquarters as probably "good jump-off spots" for an eventual attack toward the south.West of Caumont Bradley launched out with similar local attacks with the same object in mind. This sector is roughly 17

Truly Glorious!

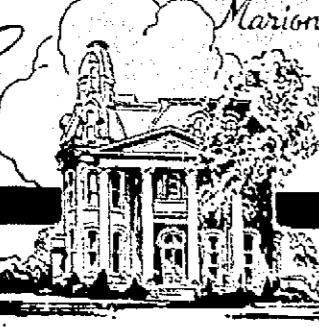

We call it "The Glorious Fourth", and there is no doubt that, to every American, the Fourth of July is indeed a glorious day, associated as it is with that basic principle of the democratic way of life: liberty, and the right of the governed to elect all who make and administer the laws of the land.

As often as our right to freedom has been challenged, we have fought for that right. Always — and pray God it may ever be so! — we have won, just as we and our allies shall inevitably win the present war.

WALLACE HEADS HOME TO ASK NOMINATION

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 3—Vice President Wallace's return from China will allow him about two weeks to put in on renomination work to offset suggestions from some that the Democrats choose another man.

Wallace left for home from Lan-chow, China, yesterday, following completion of a mission for President Roosevelt.

The vice president will find that, with general agreement on Mr. Roosevelt as a fourth term candidate and the selection of a keynote and chairman, most of the major preliminaries for the July 19 convention at Chicago are out of the way.

Sen. Samuel D. Jackson of Indiana was chosen Saturday as the convention chairman, following the selection of Gov. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma as the keynote.

Another week-end development was a statement by Senator Andrews (D-Fla.) that "there is considerable demand  for an outstanding southern man as Mr. Roosevelt's running mate" and that Wallace's sentiments "are not popular with many leading Democrats."

Andrews suggested that President Roosevelt allow the convention a free hand in choosing a vice presidential nominee. Others have said that traditionally, and properly, the man nominated for president should have the say on his partner in the race.

A short time ago, displaying Old Glory to the breeze, was considered the extent of one's patriotic duty.

Nowadays, altho it is considered a fulfillment of an American's moral obligation to still do so . . . there is, too, a greater obligation to perform.

The 5th War Loan must be successfully concluded . . . heavier Bond purchases than ever before must be made by each of us.

Buy an extra Bond and help speed the end of the war we all hate!

Each of These Is a Structure of Liberty!

Where our men fight—and fall—and rise again in battle, is sacred ground in which is being laid cornerstone upon cornerstone of freedom for all the people of the earth. Such an edifice is Independence Hall in the city of Philadelphia, housing the Liberty Bell which proclaimed to the world of 1776 the independence of these United States. Each brick in that building represents lives sacrificed—and fortunes dedicated to the winning of a war which set the precedent for the winning of liberty for all the years of history to follow.

And just as though you were building a new structure of liberty brick by brick; each time you purchase a War Bond, you personally contribute to the casting of the mold of freedom from this time forward. Our great American 4th of July—so gloriously symbolic a date . . . occurring this year during the 5th War Loan . . . is an opportunity for each of us to dedicate a part of our "fortunes" to winning the present strife more speedily, that the lives of millions of loved ones might be saved. The money which buys a War Bond is only a loan which you get back with interest. Buy DOUBLE the War Bonds you ever bought before.

Honor these heroes already back home—and join the fight with those millions still in battle. HURRY UP, AMERICA! GIVE HIM YOUR ANSWER!

the Fifth War Loan Drive ends July 8th!

AMERICANS!

You in the factories. You in the offices. You on the farms. You in the homes.

You cannot—you must not—fail to get behind your fighting man in this supreme, heroic hour.

He knows what's ahead.

Bloody, bitter fighting...superhuman toil...hardship...pain...perhaps death.

He's facing it. He'll keep on facing it, as long as there's breath in his body and blood in his veins.

But he wants to know what's behind him.

And you have only a few days left to give him the answer.

That answer will be written in the final figures on the Fifth War Loan Drive.

For this is the crucial, the all-important Drive. Never has the need for War Bond buying been so great.

To make the Drive a success, you—and everyone else—must buy at least twice as many Bonds as you bought in the last drive.

If you haven't yet bought your full share, DO IT NOW! The time is short! Make YOUR supreme effort in HIS supreme hour!

Remember—a soldier, your soldier, is waiting for his answer.

What will it be...from you?

And here are 3 MORE reasons for buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $2 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Nationals Pick All-Star Team To Play Americans July 11

Jim "No Hit" Tobin Not Included in Roster of Senior Circuit Squad; Game To Be Played in Pittsburgh.

By The Associated Press, NEW YORK, July 3.—Jim "No Hit" Tobin today qualified as the top senior pitcher in baseball, having won 25 games in his two-year "retirement" to play the part of the American. With Martin Marion of the in Pittsburgh's Forbes Field on the Cards and Eddie Miller of the night of July 11 failed to name Reeser on the list, Southwest will be the victim. Boston knuckleballer has no speedster worries and he who pitched two no-hits.

Six members of the American and Bob Elliott of the Cardinals' St. Louis Cardinals were due for third base. Frank McNamee selected by the first National Circuit of the Reds, named for managers who overlooked Tobin the seventh time, and Phil Cavanagh along with such last performances of the Cubs, are his firsters as Mort Cooper and Ray Sneyders with Rockie Don Johnson of the Cards, Tommi Holm of the Cubs and Connie Ryan of the Braves, Phil Weintraub, the Braves, both making their all-and Bill Vossler of the Giants and star bower, available for the key-Frenchy Ronstan of the Dodgers.

Cincinnati placed four men on its list, but set a surprising pitching staff that Billy Southworth, for the circuit during early season was voted to the star club. George P. Muller, Chicago, Boston, although it is slated to be in Brooklyn when grabbed three draftees into the service in St. Louis, the day of the game. It was the first time for Munder, who had been picked up by the Phillies only one.

11 On Squad Last Year

Fourteen members of the 1943 club that bowed to the Yankee American stars, 3-3, in Philadelphia, were picked with seven new comers and four who returned to duty after an absence of a year.

ASPIRANT FOR OHIO SCHOOL SPORT POST IS TRACK EXPONENT

Official of Coaches Association After Post of State Commissioner.

By LOREN W. TIBRALS, International News Service Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, O., July 3.—Who is this man Barker, currently boomed to replace the late H. R. Townsend as commissioner of Ohio's scholastic athletic program?

In short, he is Edgar C. Barker, of Duncan Falls in Muskingum county, secretary-treasurer of the Ohio Association of Track Coaches.

To elucidate, he is the top kick Ohio's slowly reviving high school track program, a hard-working basketball and football official, a sports devotee at all times, but most of all a super salesman.

Thanks to Barker and his sure-fire sales program, high school track has winged back into a place of prominence in Buckeye schools athletics. He has stumped the state backwards and forwards in the interest of track.

Goes To Bat

His love for track at times has exceeded all bounds as on a few occasions he stuck his neck out to keep the thinched sport on its way up. He drew resentment of hundreds of Ohio football fans, players and coaches early this spring when he, as an executive of Track Coaches association, urged restrictions on spring football practice to give track and other spring sports a chance to breathe.

But his views on this highly controversial issue were misconstrued badly in most sports quarters.

Barker actually did not urge abandonment of spring grid drills, but rather favored restrictions which would make it possible for football candidates to take part in track, baseball and other warm weather activities. He has suggested that April 1 be set as the deadline for spring football training. This would allow for a month-long spring sports season.

Barker today pointed out that a "sales" program, such as that which has brought track back into its own, is needed in nearly all Ohio schoolboy sports with the exception of basketball. Ed hopes to become Ohio's second scholastic athletic czar and submit his ideas to the acid test.

Sers Fertilizer Field

To support his contention that a super sales program actually is needed, Barker referred to figures of the Ohio High School Athletic Text Hutchinson, towering center of the Boston Red Sox, is in his record-breaking 1942 when he won 22 and lost 10 in lead American League.

His right-hander ace won 10 victories of the season yesterday, more than any American player, blanking the league's St. Louis Browns with six and the Red Sox a 1-0 in the opener of a twin bill. Red Sox also won the 2-2, in 11 innings to win by a game and a half.

The St. Louis Cardinals, leading the National league, won from Brooklyn to extend their losing streak to eight, their longest of the year. The Cards won the first 10 games on Johnny Temple with the bases full. The Birds also took the second.

Red Sox saw the Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees twin-bill. The Sox won the first 7-3, scoring 10 in the 10th, aided by Grimes' three errors. A double by Catcher Vince Casale attempt to double up standstill for the third out. But McNamee to scamper with the winning run in the 11th in the finale for a 7-6 victory.

Cardinals won two games from Boston, 4-3 in 10 innings, and 4-0.

Alen pitched a three-hitter for the first Giant shutout, 3-0, as New York and Boston split even. Rookie Casale won his third consecutive for the Reds in the opener, and Philadelphia swapped shutouts. The Tigers took the 4-0, and the Athletics the 2-0.

The Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia Phillies got an even split in their two games. Chicago won the first 8-1, and the Phils taking the second, 4-2.

Nate Andrews pitched the Boston Braves to a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh in the first game, but was barked by Pennant's 6-50 cufew after eight innings, with the score tied at 5-5.

This week in the softball regular season things will be more or less one-sided, at least until Thursday, when Co. M battles Sandwich Bar at McKinley Park and Sandy tangles with Waldo at the Marion Steam Show diamond.

The Soldier-Lunchmen game has long been billed as one of those games in which anything could happen. Elmer Smith, manager of Co. M, has been pointing to this game ever since the start of the season in the hope his outfit would knock the prep right out from under the defending champions and replace them at the head of the list. As to date the Lunchmen have yet to taste defeat while the boys in uniform have been defeated twice.

In another game, this one at the East End park, Italy twice defeated, will meet the undefeated boys from Waldo in which should be a real scrap.

nining jobs and Javery for consistently good but "tough luck" hurling. Ken Raffensberger of the '9s and N.Y. Andrews of the Braves round out the mound staff.

Heavy Hitting Included

Walker Cooper of the Cards, Mickey Owen of the Dodgers, with .500 all-star hitting averages, will be joined by Cincinnati's Ray Mueller, a sturdy "iron man" in the catching department.

Dixie Walker of the Dodgers and Stan Musial of the Cards, who are engaged in a real scrap for the hitting crown, drew two of the seven outfield spots.

Mac Ott of the Giants, who missed only 1933, the first year, will become the real veteran of the game by playing for the 12th team and teammate Joe Medwick will play his 10th for the Nationalists. Bill Nicholson of the Cubs, Augie Galan of the Dodgers and Vince Di Maggio of the Pirates, who holds the classic's only 1,000 batting average on his 3 for 3 a year ago, complete the outfield list.

Max Butcher and Art Cucarulla of the Pirates were named to the squad as batting practice pitchers with Virgil Davis of the Pirates as bull pen catcher. Coach Honus Wagner of the host club was named honorary coach with Mike Gonzales of the Cards and Manager Fred Fitzsimmons of the Phils active coaches.

LOVE'S FAIR HORIZON

By ADELE GARRISON

"NO USE going over all this twice," Lillian advised seriously as we come out of my study. "Harry will have to hear it all, too, so save your tonsils and your larynx. You'll have to spend the next few seconds in welcoming Gus and Joe anyway. Both of them think you're something on a fleecy cloud, you know."

"I shall be so glad to see them," I said with sincerity, for I had many valued memories of the two men, trusted messengers of my father's. They had guarded me faithfully on several occasions when he had entrusted me with carrying out the details of some important secret mission.

To Hall

They were already in the hall when we came into it, both men together with Harry and the two boys, carrying bags, typewriters, briefcases and a big pasteboard dress box which I knew must contain the mourning costume which I had asked Lillian, in code, to bring with her.

"We're not camping with you for the duration, Lady Fan," the big man said, "although all this may look like it. But the Chief orders are always 'Hill believed of duty, you know, so we brought our knitting along just in case."

"For my part, I hope you'll have time to do at least three afghans, and sweaters for the family," I told him, laughing, and then I turned to Gus and Joe, who, at Harry's nod, had set down their burdens and were looking at me expectantly.

I greeted them with the hearty cordiality they deserved, and Gus, the Gurrulous, as Dicky once had dubbed him, answered for himself and Joe, the driver.

Like Old Times

"Gee, it's nice to see you again, Miss Graham!" he said. "It'll be like old times, I told Joe, coming down to drive you around in the old truck again."

Gus invariably refers to the armored car as a truck, and under the subtle influence of his nomenclature, I often found myself describing it in the same words.

"Yes, we've had some exciting experiences in the car," I told him, and then, to my relief, Katie appeared in the doorway. Carrying on an extended conversation with Gus is apt to be a bit fatiguing.

"Dot supper she all ready, for two mens," Katie announced. "She go cold eat nobody eat her."

"All right, Katie," Harry Underwood said, propelling Gus and Joe toward the kitchen. "This is Gus, Katie and this is Joe. Have Jim show them where they can wash up, and then feed them. Fill 'em up, for I'm sure they're hungry."

Katie gave her heart-warming and welcoming giggle.

Men Follow

"Dey no be hungry after dey get some of dees stuf inside deh beds," she promised, and then the men followed her into the kitchen, and Roderick put an eager question.

"Mayn't we take these things up to your rooms, sir?" he said.

"You have your old rooms," I said quickly; "all ready for you."

"The perfect hostess," he approved. "Yes, boys, I accept your offer gladly. These old bones," and he shook his head dolefully, while the boys snickered and then quickly brought their faces to dutiful attention again.

"But I had better go up with you," the big man went on. "Then I can tell you which bags go where."

He picked up two of the heaviest bags, and gestured to the others.

"If you'll gather up the rest," he said, but as the boys briskly began to pick up the luggage, Katie fairly swooped upon the big pasteboard box and gathered into her arms.

"I'll take care of this," she said.

"Where'll I take it, Madge?"
